SENIORS CLASS SONG

YOU'LL NEVER WALK ALONE

When you walk through a storm
Keep your chin up high,
And don't be afraid of the dark.
At the end of a storm
There's a golden sky,
And the west silver song of a lark.
Walk on, through the wind;
Walk on, through the rain;
Though your dream be tossed and blown,
Walk on, walk on,
With hope in your heart;
And you'll never walk alone;
You'll never walk alone.

CLASS POEM

Old V. H. S. was once a dull place
"Til "bang" we did appear
We brightened it up just like the flash
Of the nose of Rudolph the deer.

The memories of our school days
Will always linger dear
Parties, dances, --of course athletics
Our teams knew naught of fear

Now we've finally reached the top,
We'll sing our Senior Song
And as we leaf back through the years,
It doesn't seem so long.

But we know the days "roll on",
"Twill soon be time to part
But no matter how we scatter out,
We'll still be joined in heart.

CLASS HISTORY

September 1951, sixty-two eighth graders from Ashwood, Mitchelltown, Mountain Grove, and Warm Springs enter the halls of Valley. The class divides into three groups under the guidance of Miss Thompson, Mr. Siple and Mrs. Williams. The class elects the following officers: president, Alfred Simpson, vice-president, Jimmy Hively, secretary-treasurer, Mildred Chaplin. The upper classmen enjoy initiation day as we suffer.

September 1952 begins the freshman year and finds the group more confidently taking its place in the affairs of Valley. Home room teachers are Mrs. Ward and Mr. Mace. We elect Alfred Simpson as president, vice-president, Mildred Chaplin, secretary, Billy Spinner, and treasurer Basil Fry. Competition between Miss Thompson's literature classes results in a picnic at the Cascades.

September 1953 - Sophomores.

Mr. Harrison is sponsor of the entire class in Room 6. This year we elect Carolyn Landes president, Betty Jackson vice-president, Arminta Ward, reporter, Dolly Byrd, treasurer, and Milly Chaplin secretary. To give the treasurer a job, we sponsor a square dance. Nobel McLaughlin is champion speller of the school. She goes to Fairfield to compete with other spellers. With the support of the sophomore class their candidate for football queen, Carolyn Landes, reigns over the homecoming activities.

September 1954 - Juniors!

With Mrs. Dalton as sponsor, the junior class prepares to go to work. The class officers this year are Jimmy Hively, president; vice-president, Alfred Simpson; secretary, Nobel McLaughlin; treasurer, Bobby Fleshman; reporter, Audrey Ford. Again our class comes out on top. Homecoming day we watch Dr. Hornbarger crown Dolly Byrd football queen. The junior class sponsors the Youth Club at Valley High School. We order our class rings in November. Also in November the junior class presents, "He Was A Gay Senorita", a comedy play in three acts. The junior home room wins the Christmas decoration prize. The time for the junior-senior prom. The banquet is at Three Hills. After this we go to Valley High for the prom. The decorations are in the colors of the senior class, red and white. The music is by the Dixie Kats.

September 1955 - Seniors - We thought we'd never make it!

After we enjoy the short summer vacation we come back to Valley High to finish our last year. We are happy that Mrs. Dalton is our sponsor again. To serve as head of our class, we elect Bobby Fleshman president. Other officers are vice-president, Ivar Gram, secretary, Dolly Byrd, treasurer, Alfred Simpson, and reporter Nobel McLaughlin. Upon receiving an invitation from the University of Virginia, we attend a football game at Charlottesville. To help get Mary Jane for football queen we have a Mary Jane rally at Mrs. Dalton's home. Continuing our winning ways, we elect Mary Jane the 1955 football queen. The senior home room wins the Christmas decoration prize. We are looking forward to the many senior activities this spring, especially the trip to Washington. Graduation day is now foremost in our minds. The day we have looked forward to all the years is almost here. As the day comes nearer, we find that we are not as eager as we once were.

SENIOR WILL

We, the senior class of 1956, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do declare this our last will and testament, thereby revoking any and all previous wills and testaments, and codicils thereof.

I, Keith Alt, will my broken arm to anyone who wishes to get out of doing homework.

I, Ruth Andrews, leave my figure-calling connections to next year's senior class so that they can save ten dollars.

I, Betty Burger, will Bobby Trimble to Delcie Buzzard.

I, Dolly Byrd, will my flirty ways to Nancy, as we like to keep it in the family.

I, Nelson Carpenter, leave my quiet and studious habits to Teddy Stanley.

I, Mildred Chaplin, will my come-hither eyes to anyone who can use four.

I, Bettie Cunningham, will my singing voice to anyone who likes to sing hillbilly songs.

I, Bobby Fleshman, will my love for mathematics to Georgie Simpson.

I, Audrey Ford, leave my artist's brushes to Myrna Grimes.

I, Basil Fry, will my low golf score to Willie Green.

I, Bobby Fry, leave my women to Jimmy Brinkley.

I, Ivar Gram, will my big appetite to Pinky Morris, who eats more than I do.

I, Jimmy Gum, will my center-field position to Tommy Stanley.

I, Pearl Gum, will my seat in the senior class to Carrie Jane Jenkins.

I, Claudia Gwin, will my Bath County map to Mr. Lott.

I, Bobby Hicks, leave my modest, quiet, and retiring disposition to Ed Lowery.

I, Jack Hodge, will my flair for square dancing to Shirley Law, who really doesn't need it.

I, Betty Jackson, will my hour-glass figure to Nancee Snyder.

I, Charlie Jackson, leave my second baseman's glove to Bobby Spinner.

I, Carolyn Landes, will my dimple to Claudine Grimes so she will have two.

I, Erna Layton, leave my height and guard position on the basketball team to Barbara Jean Law.

I, Mary Jane Law, will my forward basketball position to Jody Layton, because her sister didn't.

I, Nobel McLaughlin, will my giggles to Madge Hiner.

I, Evelyn Mick, bequeath my love-life to Charlotte Hodge.

I, Ronnie Polane, leave my golfing ability to anyone who is crazy enough to take up the game.

I, Nancy Robertson, will my ability to go steady to Millie Ferrell.

I, Joey Ryder, will my football ability to Charlie Snyder.

I, Alfred Simpson, bequeath my dancing slippers to Lloyd Lindsay.

I, Arminta Ward, leave my presidency of the Tri-Hi-Y to anyone who wants a difficult job.

We, the senior class, leave to Mrs. Dalton, our sponsor, our vacant seats, although we know that she will not forget us.

We leave our thanks to all the faculty for the understanding help they have given to us and for the knowledge they have taught us.

We bequeath to the junior class our ability to win and the vacant throne for the Football Queen.

As a final but most important bequest, we leave to the underclassmen our positions as seniors, and hope that their future school days will be as happy and rewarding as ours have been.

1966 CENSUS

We have just completed the 1966 census, and this is what we have discovered about the outstanding Senior class of 1956.

Keith Alt has just won the National Contest in reading books. He won by reading one hundred billion Mickey Mouse comic books.

Ruth Andrews is the favorite nurse at Virginia Baptist Hospital. All of the patients adore her, especially the men.

Betty Burger has completed her first, fame-winning novel, SILENCE IS GOLDEN.

Dolly Byrd has just been teaching the home economics boys how to make meat loaf out of sugar and spice and everything that's nice.

Nelson Carpenter is on a wild game hunt in Africa. He has just caught three toothless lions.

Mrs. Raymond Neff has just completed a cruise around the world in a rowboat with one oar. Mrs. Neff is the former Mildred Chaplin.

Bettie Cunningham has just sold her first hit record, "Hillbilly Bettie is Comin' Round the Mountain."

Robert Fleshman is now President of the United States. His big task now is appointing all women Cabinet members.

Mrs. Tommy Young, the former Audrey Ford, is designing Navy suits for her boy triplets.

Basil Fry is basketball coach of the Valley High Hornets. He is teaching them how to dribble with the feet.

Bobby Fry is the manager of the "Do Nuthin'" Factory in Sleepy Hollow.

Ivar Gram, the confirmed bachelor, is designing a true bachelor apartment, as he feels marriage is hopeless because polygamy is unlawful, and he does have a string of sweethearts.

Jimmy Gum has just finished killing all the deer in the hills of Mountain Grove with his invention of bullets that go around curves.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gum are the proud parents of twelve children. They say, "It's cheaper by the dozen."

Claudia Gwin is the vice-president of the Arthur Murray Dance Studios.

Bobby Hicks has been named the "Greatest Lover in the American Romantic World."

Jimmy Hively, The Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, says, "Feed your cows Bently's Burp Bran for more cream in your milk."

Jack Hodge and Charlie Jackson are known as Judge and Pudge, the most famous comedians on television. They are sponsored by the Sudless Soap Company.

Betty Jackson, star of the Madam Butterfly, is now demonstrating how to sing with the mouth closed.

Carolyn Landes is superintendent of the Deleware Memorial Hospital. Her patients call her "Smiley, the One Dimple Girl."

Mrs. Paul Hoover, the former Miss Erna Layton, is touring the world with her husband on a rocketship.

Miss Mary Jane Law and Mrs. Lonnie Hodge, the former Miss Nancy Robertson, are owners of the Homestead Beauty Salon. Their special hair cut? The Mambo Twirl.

Nobel McLaughlin is co-starring with Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis in the new movie "How to Giggle Until You Cry."

Mrs. Sonny Folks, the former Evelyn Mick, is running out of names, beginning with S. So far, there is Sonny Jr., Sandra, Susan, Sam, and Sally.

Ronnie Polane has just beaten Sam Snead in the National Open Golf Tournament to win $100,000.00 which will make a down payment on a mink coat for his wife, Jeanie.

Joey Ryder is the best fullback that Notre Dame has ever had - and why not with Nancy to cheer him on?

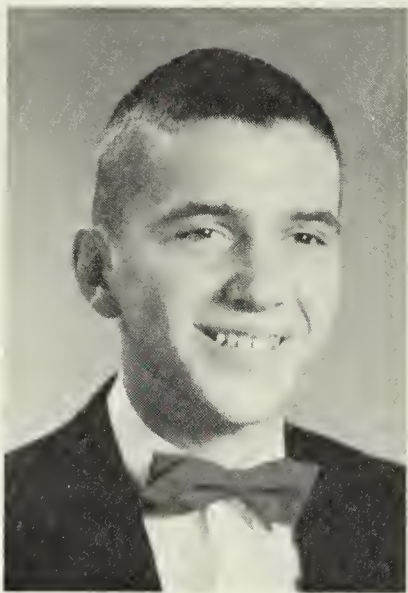

Alfred Simpson is the owner and pharmacist of the largest drug store in New York. His specialty is children's medicine with candy flavors.

Arminta Ward is keeping very busy designing clothes and modeling them herself. She has won two National Awards for her creation of the gownless evening strap.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

The graduating class of 1956 will be remembered as one of the most athletic classes in the history of Valley High School. Thirteen of the fifteen boys in the class have participated in at least one of the four sports offered here. In the past four years, the athletes of this class have been on Hornet teams that have won six District O championships.

Players and fans alike will remember such games as the 1953 basketball conference finals when Valley edged out a favored Central High team 39-38 in a three minute overtime.

As far as top baseball games go, the district crown game with Buchanan, when the Hornets, 4 runs and 2 outs down in the last half of the ninth inning, roared back to score 5 runs and take the championship, will not soon be forgotten.

Football players won't forget the 1955 White Sulpher game when the Hornets, an 18 point underdog team, rallied to win 22-19, or the 1955 conference championship contest with Troutville, when in a sea of rain and mud, Valley won the eighth crown in 11 years, 37-18.

The athletes of this class will always use the fundamentals that they were taught on the practice and playing fields in the game of life. These are the bases for sports and life alike; desire to win, determination to make the most of opportunities, and sportmanship.
